PROVOICE PROUDLY ANNOUNCED NATIVE FRENCH SPEAKING TALENT YACINE MARWAN

ProVoice Greetings, is proud to announce the addition of native French speaking talent, Yacine Marwan, to its already diverse pool of professional voice actors.

ProVoice Greetings developed its belief, of including audio as well as visual features as a necessity for a complete business presentation, into the founding principle for creating a company who offer specialized professional audio talent. Compromised of only the highest quality sound recordings in international voice talents, translation services, voicemail and IVR services, ProVoice Greetings services include, but are not limited to radio ads, voice overlay for YouTube, Power Point presentations, training videos, and book readings. ProVoice provides voice actors in English (American and British), Spanish, male and female, as well as male and female French.

ProVoice Greetings is dedicated to growing their list of outstanding voice talents, which they are demonstrating with the welcomed addition of Mr. Yacine Marwan. Mr. Marwan offers native French male voiceovers with a positive and professional attitude. With extensive experience recording for different projects such as educational, e-learning, corporate, motion design, commercial, presentation, medical and many more, as well as companies like Disneyland, Club Med, BNP Paribas, Lagardere, SNCF, Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation, to name a few, he feels confident that his voice meets the requirement for a plethora of projects. With the knowledge Mr. Marwan will be an exceptional asset to both the company and the customers they serve, ProVoice Greetings proudly welcomes Yancie to their team.
